

Avviso iscrizione corso italiano ERSU 2026-2027

The ERSU, in cooperation with the Department of Ancient and Modern Civilizations (DICAM), provides 50 hour-long courses of Italian language for international students receiving an ERSU scholarship enrolled on a UNIME bachelor, Master or Doctorate program. A1-A2 and A2-B1 level courses are organized starting in November and ending by February 2027. Classes are taught in person in a facility available to the ERSU. The schedule of the classes is as follows:

Start 2-3 November 2026

	Monday	Wednesday
Beginners (A1)	16:00-19:00	16:00-19:00

	Tuesday	Thursday
Elementary (A2)	16:00-19:00	16:00-19:00

Holiday break 21 December 2026-10 January 2027

End (final test) 18-19 January 2027

	Monday 18/1/2027
Beginners (A1)	16:00-18:00

	Tuesday 19/1/2027
Elementary (A2)	16:00-18:00

The schedule is subject to change due to unforeseen circumstances.

In order to take the final exam, students must have 75% attendance of the 50 hours in person (38 hours).

If a student fails to reach the minimum attendance rate to take the exam, they won't be able to pass the course.

How to register

Students must register by the 27th of October.

Students must register sending the form filled in to the e-mail address attivita.culturali@ersu.me.it. The e-mail should have the object "Iscrizione corso di italiano 2026-2027".

The course is free of charge.

Recognition of the activities

Students can request a certificate of successful completion of the course. They will be then able to apply to the degree program coordinator for the recognition of the activity, attaching the certificate.
